

BRIAN CA

PROFESSIONAL DANCE CLASSES

Brian Ca, graduated with Diplôme d'État de Professeur de Danse Contemporaine from Centre National de la Danse de Paris, always question himself and the students on how to help young dancer to go further in their practice : Where are you now and where can you go ? How can you take more risks ? How do you impulse new energies ? How do you discover new energies ? How can you go over your limits ? Corrections are always personal - all student are unique individuals - as a teacher he analyzes them, their body and how they move it, to be able to give the right correction to one. Also, it's important for him to observe their way of understanding it, in order to constantly re-adapt how he transmits them knowledge to find the righter and more efficient way for each of them. Few words, if they are the right ones, can change and increase entirely the body performances if they're adapted to the person.
